Rides to Childcare Program

A helping hand
to get your child
to their childcare
center or school
before work!

Are you a working parent having trouble getting your children to their childcare center or school before heading off to work?

LET US HELP!

Allied Coordinated Transportation Services now has a program that offers FREE rides to qualified Lawrence County residents lacking transportation.

Utilizing either the ACTS' buses or the New Castle Transportation Authority bus system, we may be able to assist you by providing transportation to get your children to and from their childcare provider or school while still providing your transportation to and from your place of employment.
